

FREE EDUCATIONAL PRESENTATION FOR CAREGIVERS!

ATTEND SENIOR CITIZENS & DISABILITY AWARENESS DAY, LEARN ABOUT UNDERSTANDING DEMENTIA AND MEMORY LOSS

United Way of Northern New Jersey Caregivers Coalition and the Warren County Division of Aging & Disability Services invite you to a free educational presentation at the annual Senior Citizens & Disability Awareness Day. Attendees will hear about myths surrounding dementia and Alzheimer's disease. Learn what dementia is, what it isn't, and how it relates to Alzheimer's disease.

Speaker Amy Matthews of Engaging Alzheimer's, LLC is an expert in the field and will leave time for questions from attendees. Join us for one of two available sessions.

DATE AND TIMES

Monday, July 31, 2017
12:00pm – 1:00pm OR
2:00pm – 3:00pm

Light snacks will be provided.

LOCATION

Warren County Farmer's Fair
Main Dance Floor Pavilion
County Route 519
Harmony, NJ

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

Admission to the Fair is free with your Medicare card.

While registration for this presentation is not required, it is suggested. To reserve your spot, contact Robin Ennis, United Way Caregivers Coalition Manager in Warren County, by email at Robin.Ennis@UnitedWayNNJ.org or call 973.993.1160, x305.

Special thanks to the County of Warren and the Warren County Department of Human Services, Division of Aging & Disability Services for hosting this event with United Way Caregivers Coalition.